Service Ministry

Did You Know: All Parishioners are automatically members of the Service Ministry? We are always needing new friendly faces. Watch for our Open House in September!

Please Pray

Please join us in praying for Bishop Thompson as he prepares to be installed as our new Archbishop:

Saint Theodore Guerin, co-patron of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, you trusted in God's providence when you left your home for a new mission. Dear Mother Theodora, we ask your intercession for Archbishop Charles Thompson. We pray that our new shepherd will receive God's loving guidance as he tends to the spiritual and temporal needs of the faithful of southern and central Indiana. May he remain confident in God's unfailing providence.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The St. Michael Quilting Circle

We would like to invite anyone interested in quilting or learning to quilt, to join us every Tuesday from 9:00 a.m. till 2:00 p.m. No experience required. Come join the fun, we'll keep you in stitches! Bring your own lunch.

A Note from Deacon John

Dear Parishioners of St. Michael and St. Bernard parishes:

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you! I don't know how else to express my gratitude to all of you as you celebrated my ordination to the diaconate this past weekend. It was truly a glorious experience and for all of you to be able to share in that with me and my family has been quite a blessing.

You have all been part of my formation, not just over the past four years, but over the past 47 years as I grew in my faith. I can still look around me and see some of the faithful Catechists that taught me in faith formation classes, I am grateful to all of you for sharing your faith. I am also grateful to the children and youth who have helped to form me as we have participated in sacramental preparation, activities, and mission trips together. I am most grateful to Fr. Aaron and the other priests that I have had the blessing to minister along with over the years. Your kindness and patience is truly appreciated. My family support has been amazing and for that I am most grateful.

I also want to thank the parishes for the celebration on Sunday. I never thought that Abraham Lincoln, Yoda, and Johnny Bench could be tied together so nicely, but they were! Thank you for all the words of encouragement, cards, gifts, and the incredible spiritual bouquet scrapbooks. I have begun to read them and am touched by all the letters and cards. It may take me a while to get around to personal thank you cards but know that I am so appreciative.

Please continue to keep me, Carmen, and the rest of my family in your prayers as we move forward in our journey of faith together.

Peace,
Deacon John

Question of the Week for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Question for Children: When you are generous, honest, and loving, how do you know it is Jesus who helps you do that Question for Youth: Jesus invites us to bring him our burdens and promises us that he will give us rest. How do you rely on Jesus during times of trouble? When has Jesus helped you?

Question for Adults: As you go about your daily life, dying in love for others, how do you experience Christ giving you consolation and peace?

2017 Wolfe Pack Mission Trip:

Hi, I'm Marie and I go to St. Bernard in French town and I went on the mission trip to Campton, KY. I had so much fun! We did an aerial rope course, swimming, and dancing. That is after we did some work, but that's half the fun because you talk, joke, create deeper bonds with people you know and really get to know those that you have never meet before, all while you are working. The work is honestly not that hard and we get it done. You can see the deep appreciation on the home owners. They are so truly happy that you came and you just feel like a team of heroes. Though you don't get to enjoy the fruits of your labor you feel good for doing it. For the past two years a lovely lady named Virginia cooked our food and it's amazing! I'm glad I did it and can't wait until next year and I hope I see some of you there!
