St. Michael Blood Drive – Save the Date!

Blood Drive! The American Red Cross will hold a blood drive here in the Parish Life Center on Monday,

May 7th from 3:00 - 8:00. Please give so that others may live. Each unit collected has the potential of helping 3 of God's precious people. God has given us that awesome power! As in the past we will serve chicken 'n dumplings to all those that come out to the drive. We are always happy to welcome our donors and show our St. Michael's hospitality. We also can use some help either in the kitchen serving dumplings', greeting donors, or to escort to canteen after their donation. Please give GERALYN a call and help make the blood drive go as smooth as silk... 812-364-667.

Easter and Christmas Season Mass Vestment set.

Please join in praying in thanksgiving for the intentions of the anonymous donors of a set of ivory and gold Mass vestments made by the Trappist monks of St. Joseph's Abbey. God bless the donors of this gift to our Church, and the holy monks who made these beautiful pieces.

Lilly Grant Application Update

Dear Parish Family,

Many of you have been kindly praying for a successful application to Eli Lilly for a grant to cover the expenses of a clergy sabbatical that I hope to take within a year or two.

Good news: 2 weeks ago I prayerfully mailed the completed application to Eli Lilly, and this past week Lilly notified me that they have received the signed hard copy of the application (which ended up being 24 pages long).

Writing and submitting the application was a 5-month team effort and I'm indebted to many people who have contributed to it.

Now we're in the "waiting stage." Eli Lilly will be mailing the results of the application at the end of August, which I hope to be able to share by the 1st week of September at the latest.

In prayer,
Fr. Aaron
